THE WAR DOGS

Of Greece Still Bark at Turkey's Gate.

POWERS LAND TROOPS.

Weyler Must End the Cuban War in Three Weeks.

200 KILLED BY FALLING WALLS.

Canes, March 11.—The reply of Greece to the demands of the Powers for the evacuation of this island by the Greek troops and the withdrawal of the Greek fleet from Crete waters, has been acted upon promptly, to some extent, by at least two of the Powers. When the sun rose this morning it was seen that there were strange vessels at anchor here, and it soon after developed that they were British and Italian transports loaded with troops, evidently part of the foreign force which, as the Admirals recommended, will occupy all of the principal seaport towns of the island.

The Turks assert that these troops will be used to drive the Greek forces out of Crete, but this belief is not shared by the foreign population generally.

Owing to the receipt of advices saying that a band of armed volunteers from Greece was on their way to Crete with the intention of reinforcing the Cretan insurgents, the foreign Admirals agreed to dispatch a cruiser to prevent their landing. The Mussulmans who were besieged at Candamo have arrived here on board an Italian war ship.

WAR SEEMS CERTAIN.

Greek Army May Soon Invade Turkish Territory.

Athens, March 11.—The general opinion here is that war against Turkey is unavoidable. It is believed that armed bands have been sent out by the National League to different points in Epirus and Macedonia and will give the signal for the struggle, and the Greek army on the frontier will then proceed to an invasion of Turkish territory.

The gun-boats, Action and Ambassadors, with the gun-vessel Aphrodite, have been ordered to blockade the Gulf of Arta in order to prevent the landing of Turkish troops.

The papers criticize favorably the government's reply to the note of the Powers.

The Greek Vice Consul in Canes, M. Baskis, has been forcibly conveyed on board the Alphas by order of the Italian Commandant, Amorette. The Greek government protested to the Ministers of the great Powers against the action of the soldiers.

TURKISH TROOPS

Concentrated on the Greek Border 55,000 Strong.

Constantinople, March 11.—It is announced that 55,000 Turkish troops are now concentrated on the Greek frontier, and it is understood in Turkish military circles that the Greek forces sent into Thessaly do not exceed 13,000 men of all arms.

Bismarck's Organ Speaks.
New York, March 11.—A special to the Herald from Berlin says: Prince Bismarck's organ severely condemns the participation of Germany in the Cretan question. It says:

"It is not correct policy to risk the sound bones of even a single German soldier for Oriental interests, which are not ours, or from alleged Christian and humanitarian motives such as England uses to cloak her efforts to advance her own own interests."

200 People Killed.

Tangier, Morocco, March 11.—The collapse of a wall here this morning resulted in the death of 200 people.

THREE WEEKS.

The Limit Is Given Weyler in Which to End the War.

Havana, March 11.—The Spanish government has about exhausted its patience with General Weyler and the report is confirmed that the Captain General has positive orders to end the war within three weeks. As this is an impossibility, it is thought the General will be recalled promptly after the expiration of that time.

MUST VOLUNTEER.

Troops to Leave Towns Where Volunteers Are Not Forthcoming.

Havana, March 10.—Capt. Gen. Weyler has ordered all the regular Spanish troops to abandon the towns in which the merchants and landed proprietors do not provide, free of cost to the government, three volunteers for every government soldier of the garrison. He has been in communication on this subject with the proprietors, merchants and prominent people who are most interested in preserving their fortunes.

Gen. Gonzalez Munoz, chief of the general staff, sails today for Puerto Rico with his family. Thence he will sail for Spain during the month of April.

Tomas Armas Carrillo, Eduardo Hernandez Falcon, Victor Miranda, Julio Carbo and Miguel Hatuey Cespedes, all well known in connection with the insurgent cause, with seven other prisoners, were sent to the Chaffarin Islands today, and ninety-eight members of the Nanigo Society from Mantanzas were sent to the plantation of Fernando Po.

AMERICAN RELEASED.

Antonio Suarez del Villar Liberated From Prison at Cienfuegos.

Washington, March 11.—A cablegram was received at the State Department this morning from United States Consul McGarr, at Cienfuegos, saying another American citizen, Antonio Suarez del Villar, had been liberated.

Del Villar is a native of Cuba, but was naturalized in the United States. The records of the State Department show that he was arrested in Cienfuegos on September 5 last, on a charge of having purchased and concealed arms and ammunition. Upon representations of this government his case was removed from the jurisdiction of the military authorities who had arrested him and was ordered to be tried by civil tribunal in accordance with treaty stipulations. That was on December 23 last, but he has been held in prison at Cienfuegos until today, when the order came for his release.

EX-SENATOR BLACKBURN

Arrives at Lexington, But Refuses To Talk.

Lexington, March 11.—Ex-Senator Blackburn has arrived in the city and will tomorrow go to the capital. Mr. Blackburn refuses to be interviewed with reference to the senatorial fight.

He says he will hold a conference with Johnson and decide as to whether he will withdraw. He denies having authorized any statement that he would withdraw in the interest of harmony.

NINETY-ONE COUNTS

In Indictment Returned By Federal Grand Jury Against McKnight.

Louisville, Ky., March 11.—The Federal grand jury has returned an indictment against ex-Banker McKnight containing ninety-one counts, charging every form of fraud and crime possible to imagine in connection with banking transactions. It is believed the defendant will surely land in the penitentiary.

BICYCLE THREW HIM.

Mr. Chas. Moequot Suffering From a Painful Injury.

Mr. Chas. Moequot, of the Leigh Fruit Company, suffering from a painful injury, was riding on his bicycle yesterday afternoon when he collided with a gentleman who stepped off a street car, and fell against a "cut-off" hydrant, tearing his elbow very painfully, and completely disabling him temporarily.

HEADQUARTERS.

Hunter, Boyle and Holt Have Established Them.

Frankfort, Ky., March 11.—The three senatorial candidates, Dr. Godfrey Hunter, St. John Boyle and Judge Holt have all established headquarters and gone into a regular systematic contest for the senatorship. Dr. Hunter claims fifty-one votes in the caucus and 75 votes on joint ballot of the assembly. Boyle and Holt both pronounce these claims preposterous.

WILL REMAIN.

Most Members of the House Till the Extra Session.

Washington, March 11.—Most members of the lower house of Congress will remain in Washington till the date fixed for the extra session, which is called for next Monday. The Republican members have their hands full looking after the patronage.

AFTER PRODUCE.

James Roark, of Marshall county, had a quantity of produce stolen from his wagon in Isaman's wagon yard, on Second street, last night. No clue.

RAILROAD NOTES.

A Version of Why All These Wrecks.

NOTHING NEW IN CAIRO WRECK

Something of a Contemporary's Reliable Railroad News.

OTHER THINGS OF INTEREST IN RAILROAD CIRCLES.

"There have been more wrecks on the Illinois Central system within the past three months than ever known before," remarked an old railroad man this morning.

"How do you account for it?" asked a bystander.

"I don't know unless it's because the company has such a rush of business that it overlooks its men," was the reply. "I know of men on this road who haven't had a good sleep in a week. I saw a brakeman yesterday who said he hadn't had his clothes off in six days. Whenever a man gets half asleep, he is likely to do most anything."

But the above is only the rather unique opinion of one man.

No blame has yet been attached to any one as a result of the wreck at East Cairo, Ky., yesterday morning. Fireman Rodgers, who was killed, was a white man and a prominent Mason.

The statement in the "Register" this morning that "all freight and passenger cars on the St. Louis division for Paducah and east will be handled via Fulton" is like most of its other railroad news, founded solely on the fertile imagination of its railroad reporter. All railroad men who know anything about railroading give the "Register" credit for being the most thoroughly unreliable paper on railroad transactions especially in Paducah. Even the "Sunday Visitor" is truthful in comparison.

At Carbondale, Ill., Mr. A. J. Conrad has put in a carriage service from the passenger depot to the city. This was rendered necessary by the high water.

Here are a few "tips" given by a contemporary that have been fulfilled:

That a fast express would run from St. Louis to New Orleans and pass through Paducah, losing an hour by transferring across the river here instead of making two hours by going through Cairo.

That the N. C. & St. L., incline would be abandoned and all transferring across the river would be done over the I. C. incline, the cars being taken around through the I. C. yard. That the Union and N. C. & St. L. depots would be consolidated.

The weekly statement that the next week will witness a restoration of the whole force of workmen. The river front railroad. That Mr. Hasserman would surely be appointed Master Mechanic. Ad infinitum.

The St. Louis passenger train due at 7:30 this morning was delayed four hours today by slow running and long delays on the other side.

Roadmaster A. T. Sabin came in from Louisville at noon.

SAY THEY WILL QUIT.

Butchers Mad Over New Cold Storage Rules.

Say They Are to Be Restricted and Overcharged Too Much This Year.

The butchers of Paducah have another kick.

This time it is about cold storage. For the past year or more most of them, instead of maintaining ice boxes of their own at the market place, have paid for space in the cold storage at First and Broadway, only a square away. This was cheaper and equally as satisfactory.

Yesterday they all received notices from the cold storage company relative to getting space this year, and these notices have engendered no little feeling, it appears.

One butcher said to a St. S. reporter: "Last year we paid fifty cents a foot in the storage, and were allowed to keep our cans of lard on the floor. If we had two calves and didn't want to feed them we could kill them both and keep one or both of them in the cold storage with the hides on. Another thing, if we took out a quarter of beef, or a whole beef, and had any of it left over, we could put it away if it left over, we could put it away not the following day. The new notice, however, says that this year we will be charged $1 per foot, and will be allowed to keep nothing on the floor. Neither will we be allowed to keep calves with hides, nor can we take any beef back that has once been exposed for sale, according to the new rules."

"What are the butchers going to do about it?" was the inquiry.

"They are not going to do anything except quit using cold storage and get ice boxes of their own," was the reply.

"All but one or two have ready signified their intention to do this, and there is no doubt but that they will do like the others."

AFTER MANY YEARS

Col. W. F. Pitcher Comes Back to Paducah.

Recognized Nothing But the Old Fort—Was Here During the War.

Col. W. F. Pitcher, the venerable father of Dr. W. H. Pitcher, the well known dentist, is a guest of the latter. It is his first visit here since the war, and he took a drive about the city yesterday, but recognized nothing but the old fort, which he knew at a glance, and so expressed himself without a moment's hesitation.

Col. Pitcher was stationed here in 1865 as quartermaster of the 34th New Jersey Regiment, and was in the fort the day Col. A. P. Thompson was killed while marching on what is now Trimble street. He witnessed Col. Thompson's death and remembers well the old stemmer, known as the "Lang stemmer," from which the sharpshooters fired their deadly missiles down into the fort.

The building was burned, and when Col. Thompson, in command of the 3d Kentucky and 7th Tennessee, was crossing the street a shell killed him instantly.

SUIT SETTLED.

Latest Developments Among the Primitive Baptists.

The Church Gets $2,500 After Due Process of Law.

There are new developments in the Primitive Baptist church mess in Graves county. Two factions have for some time been at war to find out which constitutes the real Primitive Baptist church. They have been having a "wild and woolly" time of it. If reports are true.

Yesterday at Mayfield an important suit was settled. J. L. Frost, deceased, will be $2,500 to the Primitive Baptist church for the erection of a house of worship at Wingo, Ky. The will was contested by the heirs of Frost, and the court decided in favor of the church. They will begin the erection of a church at once at that place, maybe.

It is claimed that one faction of the church claims that it is "the" Primitive Baptist church, and wants the money, and the dissenting faction makes the same claim for the same purpose. Whichever one gets it will build a church with the money.

STATIONARY

Is the Condition of the River Here.

Indications Are For More Rain Tonight.

From the present outlook it is no likely there will be any fall of any consequence in the river at this place for several days to come. However, without more rain it is not expected to go any higher.

The stage of the water has not varied more than an inch here since yesterday afternoon. This afternoon at 3 o'clock the official gauge showed a fraction over 44.1, a fall of nearly one tenth of a foot since yesterday. The Ohio is said to be falling rapidly at Parkersburg, W. Va., but is rising fast at Cincinnati and Louisville.

The Tennessee is falling at Chattanooga and rising at Florence and Johnsonville. The indications are for more rain tomorrow and this may change matters here.

TAPPED THE TILL.

A colored boy robbed the cash drawer at Councilman Chris Liebel's grocery this morning, and in his precipitate flight dropped two half dollars on the floor. The amount he got is unknown, as is the thief's name.

OLD AGE

Appeals Not to Hugh Burrows, Evidently.

MRS. CATHERINE SWEENEY MAD.

Claims Her Son-in-Law Defrauded Her Out of Her Home.

HE ORDERS HER TO VACATE.

Mrs. Catherine Sweeney, who lives near Sixth and Ohio streets, sent for a lawyer and began preparations for making it somewhat warm for her son-in-law, Hugh Burrows, who lives with his wife on the Ogilvie place in the country. She charges him with fraudulently obtaining possession of the little house she occupies, and the lot on which she has lived for the past thirty years or more. Her son-in-law she says has even gone further than this and ordered her to immediately leave the premises, or pay rent. This is the first intimation she had of the rather anomalous condition of affairs.

Mrs. Sweeney is an honest old Irish woman, who can neither read nor write, and who has worked hard for herself and children, as she said this morning, for years and years. Now an effort is being made to put her out of the house and leave her helpless and homeless.

A few years ago the old house owned by her husband burned, and she erected two small rooms with the insurance money she received on it, about $200. Burrows married an older daughter, and carried her out to Kansas City to live. One of her three children died, and finally she died herself. Burrows afterwards married another daughter, and is now living with her near the city.

On March 21, 1892, Burrows agreed to buy the old lady's interest in the property, according to her story, having already purchased the interest of the remaining children, and was to stipulate in it that she should have a homestead in it as long as she lived.

The deed embodies no such a provision, however, as shown by record in the county clerk's office. When the old lady signed away her right, however, she did not know this, for she cannot read, and claims that the instrument was never read to her. At the bottom is simply a "her mark."

Her son-in-law has now ordered her to get out, and she refuses. As yet no official notice has been served on her, and her attorney will at once institute legal proceedings to set aside the transaction on the ground that it was fraudulent.

MARRIAGE IN FULTON.

Prominent Young People Wedded Yesterday.

Mr. J. H. Thetford and Miss Maude Robble Reeds were united in marriage at the home of Maj. E. C. Reeds in Fulton at high noon yesterday.

Mr. Thetford is a prominent grocer and a man of wealth and influence, while his bride is the second daughter of Maj. E. C. Reeds, the wealthiest man in Fulton county. The marriage was a quiet affair, only the immediate family being present. The bride and groom left on the 12:40 train for St. Louis.

Such a measure is within the purview of the call for the special session, and should and doubtless will have the hearty and undivided support of the Republican members and many Democrats. There is no good reason why any law-abiding citizen—any citizen who is in favor of the impartial administration of justice—should fail to give it his hearty support. Kentucky must do something to destroy the effect of the terrible record he has made for herself in the last few months. It is a matter of simple justice to a large class of her citizens that such a law should be enacted, and we believe it will be done. There should be added to the paragraph here proposed, penalties to be imposed on the perpetrators such as will deter them from taking part in

Secretary Sherman took the dispatch to the executive mansion. Afterwards he called to Gen. Lee, requesting him to continue at his post, explaining that no one has been selected as his successor, and it would be inconvenient to consider that matter for some time. He was assured fair treatment by the administration, and told that his remaining as usual General would be regarded by the President as a personal favor. Gen. Lee cabled to-day that he had found it not only difficult but at times impossible to furnish American citizens that degree of protection to which they are entitled. He has been humiliated in the attempt to discharge his duties. As now situated, he can not obtain such recognition as he desires from the

WRITTEN AT RANDOM.

"I was up at Hopkinsville yesterday," said Dr. D. P. Jewett, who left Paducah for the green fields—and perhaps the greener people—of Bardwell, "and I was surprised to see so many of my old friends in the asylum there, old friends whom I had quite forgotten until a sudden meeting brought them all back to my mind.
"Quite a remarkable thing happened" proceeded the doctor with visible interest "while Dr. Letcher was showing me through the asylum.
A lady came up and spoke to me calling me by name, but I did not know her until she told me she was Mrs. Sid Taylor. Her husband was a brother to Mrs. Judge Thomas, of Paducah, and she is well known in Paducah. I knew her in Bardwell, but she has been in the asylum twenty years. The strange part is that she had never seen me with a grey hair in my head, or with beard, and yet she recognized me at once, and asked me about my people and about many things of the past that she recalled with wonderfully vivid distinctness. I conversed with her for some time, and she never said a single thing to indicate a mental de-rangment except that she had been there 105 years.
"I saw an old doctor there, too, whom I knew years ago in Ballard county. That was old Dr. Lockhart, who has been there for years and years. Then I was introduced to a man whom at first I did not know, although he readily knew me. This was Will Holloway, who used to be clerk at the old Richmond Hotel.
His affliction is such that he cannot walk, but talks rationally, and asked me about my family, calling each by name." And then there were others.
Dr. Jewett says it makes a peculiar impression on a fellow to find his boyhood companions or friends winding up their lives in such a place.

If a man walks up, taps you familiarly on the back, and you turn to find an erstwhile friend who has hardly spoken to you in ten years, or one from whose acquaintance you have gradually drifted because he imagined he had gotten too good for you, don't be alarmed. No, don't think that the millennium is here either, and that it is time for the lion and the lamb to lie down together, for it isn't.
The man who has thus accosted you is no doubt a candidate.
"Why, howdy Bill?" he'll in all probability say with a ring of well simulated friendliness which may deceive you if you don't look sharp.
"Haven't seen you in a long time," he proceeds, to lead the impression that either you or he has been away on a several years visit.
And then he'll remonstrate in a gentle, delicate way, perhaps, of little favors he'd shown you, your step-uncle or third cousin some time in the last century, and the remembrance of which you gave a decent burial ten years before.
"Of course you know I'm a candidate Bill," he'll announce in conclusion, and you'll feel so good over the restoration of friendship that you'll unhesitatingly say:
"Well, I'm for you,"—forgetting that you may afterwards prefer to vote for the friend who has always remained the same. But such are life, candidates and voters.

There are said to be a number of damaged suits drawn up here against newspapers and individuals. According to reports there will be no less than two against one newspaper for libel, one by a resident of Paducah and one by a man in another city. Half of the damage suits drawn up, however, are never filed.
And they don't usually amount to anything when they are filed.

St. Patrick, according to reports, had pretty good success in his effort to exterminate the snakes of Ireland.
If this illustrious man was here now, he could further demonstrate his ability by getting rid of the prize fighters, who even have the audacity to scrap on his birthday.

A pardon was issued by Gov.
Bradley Wednesday to Eli C. Bolin, of Owsley county, who has been in the penitentiary 14 years for manslaughter.

Bolin's case is a remarkable one.
His pardon has been refused by three governors—Buckner, Brown and Bradley—without understanding it was urged by the trial jury, judge and many good citizens. With each governor there was one obstacle and one chief reason upon which the refusal was based. This was a letter from the commonwealth's attorney who prosecuted Bolin.

This letter stated that Bolin shot his man in the back. None of the governors could get over this letter.
Wednesday there came to the governor a letter from the old commonwealth's attorney, in which he says he has discovered that he made a mistake; had done Bolin a wrong.
This letter, Bolin's excellent prison record, the testimony of neighbors, and the fact that three governors refused a pardon, led the present governor nothing else to do but promptly issue the pardon, which he did.

About a dozen prominent doctors were asked this morning by the writer how sickness is in Paducah, and the unanimous reply was that they are all nearly idle, and that there is less than the average illness for this time of the year.

THE DESERT A-BLOOM.

Results of Thrift and Industry on a Georgia Farm.

Arid Wastes Converted Into Fertile Fields by Refugees from Alsace-Lorraine—The Labors of a Poor Family.

In two miles of the Union depot may be seen a little farm that speaks stronger than words of what can be done on Georgia lands. A few years ago this land had gone to waste. Ruts made it unsightly and its owner was moving with all his energy to sell and set off to Texas. About this time there came to Atlanta a family of French people to work in the factory. This French family hailed from the little village called Natzler, Alsace-Lorraine. When the war was raging between Napoleon III. and the Germans these people fled from Alsace-Lorraine and took their abode in Paris.
When the war ended and Alsace-Lorraine fell under the government of the Germans these people preferred to come to America than to return to their conquered homes. They landed in New York city on May 10, 1881, with only 85 cents in their pockets, a houseful of small place lived in a strange land. A visit to their home out West hunter street, just two miles, and a look at their surroundings will impress you of what may be accomplished in Georgia.

It has been just 14 years since the old man Bernad purchased this seven-acre lot. It was considered too poor to sprout peas at that time, and rough, red and unsightly, but when I look upon it now I feel sorry for the fool "Geo-gia cracker" who sold it for a song and spent the money moving to Texas.
The whole place has been bearing grapes for a number of years, the Ber-nades are rich, good dwellings, barn and a wine cellar 90x110 feet, three stories high and full of wine.

As I have stated, these people were refugees from Alsace-Lorraine during the Franco-German war. When they landed in New York they were seen by an agent of the Atlanta cotton factory and made a trade to come to Atlanta.
They sold everything they had to get to Atlanta, and there was not one of them that could speak a word of English. But they could work, and the whole family went at it, and they went to planning to save to buy a few acres.
By the aid of Gov. Bullock and the firm of Elias, May & Co., old man Bernad was enabled to buy this seven-acre tract, and he at once moved upon it and began planting grapes and improving the land. The children were kept in the factories for a few years while the old folks stayed at home and tended the farm.

For three years spades and grubbing hoes were all they used to do the work that our folks performed with the plow.
Pretty soon, though, the little farm began to bloom and blossom and the barn began to pass away. They got them a cow and pigs, they saved and stunted till pretty soon they had more cows and more pigs. A barn was built, and every sprig of grass and every weed was culled and put in that barn. Then their grapes began to bear, and they ceased to raise vegetables, but planted more vines and attended to their grapes. Good landings were soon built and a fine wine cellar, and so they have progressed till prosperity and comfort crops out on all their surroundings, and to-day they rate their place as being worth as much as the growing of grapes as the lands of France or any other country. Anyhow, their place is a thing of beauty and their success should encourage us all to be satisfied. All over Georgia are evidences of the generosity of the old Germans. They will give of many fruits if we give them the chance. Start in any direction from Atlanta and once in awhile you will run across a farm which has been given a chance, and it is by these farms that Georgia should be rated. Close to where I live a Scotch land gentleman grows as fine clover and grain as can be grown in any country. As a sample of his farming, he makes 50 bushels of oats per acre, while the native "cracker" brings on eight and ten bushels. Near Decatur, Col.
Creswell and George B. Ranspach have vineyards as fine as those of the French people, and Mr. Ranspach raised this year thousands of bushels of Irish potatoes among his vines. When I say thousands of bushels, it sounds mighty big, but thousands it is. He has about 40 acres in vines, and for several years has grown potatoes among them. Convinced that it was no injury to the grapes to raise the potatoes, he planted the whole 40 acres this year, and thousands of bushels is the result. All we have to do to give the land of Georgia the same showing that the lands of other countries receive and they will respond with as generous yield as any,
and of all varieties.—Atlanta Constitution.

He Had Tried It.
"You have no idea how much amusement and sport one can derive from egg-collecting."
"Egg-collecting?"
For a minute the actor seemed to think that some insinuation was intended.
"Yes—egg-collecting," returned the collector. "There is an excitement and an interest to it that—Oh, well, you ought to try it sometime."
"I've been through it all," returned the actor. "You forget that I starred in 'Hamlet' all one season."
And then he generously offered to go out on the same old circuit and use the collector as a dummy to collect the eggs, but nothing came of the offer.—Chicago Post.

The Car as a Social Autocrat.
The Wiener Tagblatt has found an extraordinary reason for praising the demonstrator of the car. He actually admired Mme. Faure and Mme. Brisson, who are not even hoflags, to dine at the same table with himself and the cravings. Such a concession to republican principles would, the journalist continues, be absolutely impossible in Vienna, where, though a low-born man might be admitted to the emperor's table, his wife never could be. The fact is correct, and was once the occasion of a curious scene at the Hofburg when the emperor had to exert his personal authority to obtain partners for his premier's daughters; but our contemporary surely mistakes the feeling of the car. In his mind, as in that of every true autocrat, there is no rank except that derived from his favor. His policy, in fact, as Nicholas I. once openly said, of itself confers rank. The well-born in Russia have social advantages, as everywhere else, but Peter the Great's ablest minister was a cook or sutler, and the tradition has never been forgotten. In Russia, as in every ordinary country without exception, all careers are as open as in the United States.—London Spectator.

FOR THE TABLE.

Some Dishes That Are Truly Palatable, Yet Yet Prepared.

Veal Tenderloin with Tomatoes.—Wash a fresh tenderloin of veal, lard it well, salt and pepper it and dredge with flour on both sides. Lay it in a baking pan with hot water enough to nearly cover it, and roast for an hour, basting with the gravy every ten or fifteen minutes. Then turn on the other side, and to the roast add a quart of peeled and mashed tomatoes, two sprigs of parsley chopped fine and black pepper. Pour this mixture over the veal every ten or fifteen minutes. Turn over ten minutes, adding boiling water as needed. Serve hot with its own gravy, which is to be eaten with rice cooked dry.

Devilled Lobster.—Chop the meat fine and add lobster, and remove the obnoxious portions, keeping the coral by itself. Season the meat with cayenne, mustard, and some favorite sauce pungent in quality, salt and stir well together. Mix the coral with strong cream, till it is creamy consistency. Put the meat into a granite stew pan, with sufficient water to prevent burning. Bring to a boil, add a tablespoonful of butter and the prepared coral. When it all boils up remove from fire.

Scalloped Eggs.—Boil one dozen eggs hard, cut same lengthwise in halves, slicing a bit off the bottom to make them stand. Extract the yolks, rub to a smooth paste with a little butter mashed, cayenne pepper, a little mustard and a dash of vinegar. Fill the hollow whites with this paste. Chop cresses, season with pepper, salt, vinegar and sugar. Spread same about two inches thick on a platter and lay the eggs thereon in rotation. Can use lettuce or cabbage instead of cresses.

Scalloped Sweet Potatoes.—A dish of scalloped sweet potatoes is delicious.
Peel, wash and slice them in thin slices, put a layer of them in a large pudding dish, sprinkle salt over them, with a very little powdered cracker crumbs, and put a bit of butter; then another layer of the sliced potatoes, cracker crumbs, salt and butter, until the dish is full. Don't be sparing of the butter, as this requires more than the scallop of white potatoes. Pour in milk enough to nearly cover and bake until nicely browned.

Sweet Potatoes Creamed.—Boil the potatoes. When cool enough peel and cut in half lengthwise, then cut each half in three long pieces. Place on a tin in a hot oven, sprinkle with salt and put two spoonfuls of butter in the pan; when they have been in a few minutes pour over them a cupful of sweet cream. When it is hot pour the cream potatoes into a vegetable dish and serve.

Cocoanut Pudding.—Cream one cupful of sugar with the yolks of six eggs, and stir in one-half pound of grated cocoanut (fresh grated is better than the desiccated), one pint of rich milk, and one-half cupful of stiff sponge cake crumbs, two teaspoonfuls of vanilla, and the whites of three eggs well frothed. Put in the oven and bake for 40 minutes. Add to the top of the pudding a meringue made of the whites of the three eggs, beaten stiff into which has been stirred one-half cupful of powdered sugar. Let this brown slightly, then serve.—St. Louis Republic.

Great, moist drops of liquidity es-

"The unjust are never without an Thoughts of a missing six-dollar signed wearily.—Fit-Bits.

motor-men on the Paducah line will then come out in new navy blue uniforms, with silver buttons, instead of brass, new caps, and entire new outfit. They expect to make quite an impression and catch all the business going on that day.
They won't have to exert themselves to the extent of ringing their gongs, however, because they all intend to wear the latest style shirts, which will make sufficient noise to warn all unwary pedestrians.

"Our Flat," the delightful 3 act comedy to be presented at Morton's Opera House tomorrow night, is a satire on the custom which some young people have of rushing into matrimony, and trying to set up house keeping on an empty purse, depending on the installment house proprietors and other trades people.
The piece has enjoyed phenomenally successful runs in London and New York City.

Officer Barnhart Rescues it and Turns it Over to Marshal Collins.

OWNED BY A TENNESSEE MAN.

Officer Jeff Barnhart today recovered a valuable diamond that was taken from a young man in Camden, Tenn., by a young woman who claims to be his "lover" for several years. The police have been working on the case for a day or two, and Officer Barnhart obtained the sparkler in a rather unusual manner. He went to where the woman was staying, at a house on North Tenth street, and engaged in a game of cards, to deceive her. He finally, after some maneuvering, told her flatly that he wanted the diamond, and found a pocket book concealed in her stocking. He compelled her to remove it, and found some change, and in a smaller pocket in the book the diamond, which he turned over to Marshal Collins. The woman, who had been trembling violently, then broke down and wept and said she borrowed the diamond and intended to take it back. She was not arrested.

The woman's name is Linnie Morris, and she is just twenty years old.
She is well acquainted with Officer Barnhart's relatives in Tennessee, and this helped him with her confidence. The stone is now at the city hall awaiting instructions from its owner. It is valued at about $200 if not more.

PUGNACITY.

Frank and Will Haffey Both in Trouble.

DITTO MAX WOODS.

Had a Fight and Will Haffey and Woods Went Away in Windy Thompson's Skiff.

WARRANTED FOR STEALING IT.

Frank Haffey, Willis Mount, and John Lydon were charged with gaging in a general fight at Second and Broadway about 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon when police court convened this morning. A continuance was granted until tomorrow.

The fight started from Mount's refusal to talk to Frank Haffey, who was drunk. When he knocked Haf-fey down Will Haffey rushed up and knocked Mount down. Frank in the meantime, procured a cheese knife and cut a wide swath with it. Officers Harlan, Eaker and Etter appeared on the scene, and by this time Lee Murray was involved and attempted to take the officer's pistol from him. He was knocked down for his trouble. John Lyden attempted to act as peacemaker and as usual got the worst of it. All the belligerents who were in court today they felt like someone had been pounding them with cross ties. Will Haffey, Max Woods and Lee Murray started off in "Windy" Thompson's skiff, but Murray was put out down the river. The other two went on down to Metropolis, where it was reported at headquarters that it had been sold for eight dollars.

This morning Judge Sanders, at the instance of Thompson, issued a warrant against Will Haffey and Max Woods, son of Dave Woods, charging them with stealing the skiff.
Murray was not included in the warrant, as he is still in the city, it is understood.

Information was received in the city today that Haffey had been jailed at Metropolis, but Marshal Collins received no confirmation of it.

The stolen boat was "White Wings," and it was sold to Dr. Covington for $5.

BIG DEFECTIVE.

Said to Have Been Here Three Days.

According to Marshall Collins, a Mississippi detective has been in the city for three days after big game, and has secretly arrested one man and lodged him in jail.

Neither he nor the police will divulge anything relative to it, and the Marshal stated this afternoon that another arrest would likely follow before the detective left. At the jail it was denied that anyone had been in custody there.

RAILROAD RUMBLINGS.

Items of Interest Relative to the Railroads and Railroad People.

N. C. AND ST. L. MILEAGE.

Engine 10 is out on work train today.

Judge Burkholder, the king of saw mill men from out at Oaks, is in the city today.

Engine 312, Gideon and Kane in her deck room, doubled back on train 50 this a. m.

Mr. Al Townsend, the efficient special officer for months past, resigned his position today and will engage in other pursuits.

Ed Lofton, the water boiler on the 305 is sick in bed at Lexington, and "Jarbo" added fuel to her flames from there into this city.

Mr. John Jones and his bride, nee Miss Annie Agburn, left on the morning train for Lexington, Tenn., to spend the honeymoon.

Smiles, child-like and bland, enraptured the features of all the employes today. The coming of the treasure vans this afternoon accounts for their good humor.

Conductor Tucker will pull in at usual time this p. m. with the pay train. He and his crew are ever welcome and have more callers than all other train crews combined.

An unusual occurrence transpired at the residence of Mr. Agburn yesterday in E. town. A daughter was wedded while her little brother was lying a corpse in the same house.

Billy Lewis, the young "Con," is winning golden "reps" by the way he gets locals over the line. If he don't get through on time it is because some superior train lays him out.

The high price that poultry and hen fruit have been selling at should take a tumble now. Conductor Tucker had in his long train yesterday several cars for the city filled to the roofs with those commodities.

The funeral of "Uncle" Abe Harris, which took place at the A. M.
E. church on Husband's street was largely attended, and quite an imposing procession followed his remains to the cemetery.

Owing to a caving in of the bank along the river front track, the switch engine has been unable to get up as far as Riggsberger's mill since last Saturday. The water will have to fall many feet before it can be remended.

Gardner Sheppard, the rattling throttle puller on the 305 from the lower division, brought that mogul in on the local yesterday for some slight repairs. The boys will all shake "Sheps'" digits once more, and wish him a pleasant visit to his old home.

Fireman Duncan Hicks is awaiting to be assigned to some run. He says he gets rolled often than any diamond heaver on the pike, but now he is the senior of several and the next regular run he takes the shovel wheeler that gets him off will have to wake up earlier than he can.

A lively runaway took place on Jones street this morning. A small sized mule hitched to a delivery wagon came dashing up that thoroughfare and whirled the corner into South Fifth. He was nearly exhausted when the depot was reached and was caught with little trouble. No damage except the empty barrels, boxes, baskets, etc., were scattered for several blocks.

The traveling public will bear in mind that the N. C. & St. L. run through Pullman buffet sleepers, leaving Nashville every night at 9 o'clock for Washington, Baltimore, Boston, Philadelphia and New York City without change. Parties desiring to visit any or all of those cities will find it to their interest to call on Mr. Frank B. Teachout, the company's gentlemanly representative at 425 Broadway, under the Palmer House, for all information.

Owing to increasing business and for the accommodation of shippers and the traveling public the company has decided to open a down town office. It will be located in the Palmer House building at No. 425 Broadway. Mr. Frank B. Teachout has been selected as the agent and a better appointment could not have been made. He is thoroughly competent, having had a long experience as contracting and general traveling agent on other big systems, is courteous and affable and has already endeared himself to the merchants of the city since he has been the solicitor.
The office will be handsomely equipped. A telegraph wire will be run in and tickets for all points local and through, will be on sale. Mr.
Teachout or his assistant will be found in the office at all times in discharge of their duties, and give information, rates and all other matters in connection with the line. The office is now being renovated and refitted and will in a day or so be ready for occupancy.
